REPORT

For the students of admitted in B.Com. Semester-1 of Academic Year : 2019-2020 of Government Commerce College,Vadali, to develop awareness towards English language and interest, interest and attitude towards English language and students can easily use English language in daily life as per the guidance of IQAC Committee Date : 15/07/2019 to Date : 10/10/ Up to 2019 First Batch and Date : 01/12/2019 to 28/02/2020 Second Batch 60 hours course of 'Certificate Course of English Language & LSRW Skills Development' was launched by Accountancy Department of Government Commerce College, Vadali.

The college here is English medium so it is very important for all the students studying in the college to develop proficiency in English language. Today, when the English language is spoken all over the world, the students coming from the rural areas of this college can keep pace with the times and can prepare the English subject well in various competitive exams and can give campus placements and interviews with full confidence.

Today there is a kind of fear and lack of confidence among students while speaking English. This course was organized to remove this fear and instill confidence in the students. In this course, students were systematically trained and tried to develop linguistic readiness through PowerPoint presentations through different types of sessions Smart Class. Work was done by Prof. Paresh S. Khetal, assistant professor of the college's accountancy department, Prof. Shailesh S. Baria, assistant professor of the college's accountancy department and Prof. Dr. Guruprakash Z. Singh, assistant professor of the college's Economics department, as the expert of the course presented.

The presented course was of 60 hours in which a total of 60 sessions of one hour each were organized. The course developed listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in students with various activities. A test of all skills was conducted at the end of the chorus. A total of 32 students passed the course, each of whom was awarded certificates at the college annual festival.
