Can Do Statements: overall general ability

CEFR LEVELS	Listening	Reading
C2	CAN understand any kind of spoken language delivered at fast native speed.	CAN understand a wide range of long and complex texts, appreciating subtle distinctions of style and implicit as well as explicit meaning.
C1	CAN understand enough to follow extended speech on abstract and complex topics beyond his/her own field, though he/she may need to confirm occasional details. Can recognise a wide range of idiomatic expressions and colloquialisms. Can follow extended speech even when it is not clearly structured.	CAN understand in detail, complex texts, whether or not they relate to his/her own area of speciality, provided he/she can reread difficult sections.
B2	CAN understand the main ideas of complex speech delivered, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can follow extended speech and complex lines of argument if the topic is reasonably familiar.	CAN read with a large degree of independence, adapting style and speed of reading to different texts and purposes. Has a broad reading vocabulary, but may experience difficulty with low-frequency idioms.
B1	CAN understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure etc.	CAN read straightforward factual text on subject related to his/her field and interest with a satisfactory level of comprehension.
A2	CAN understand clearly and slowly spoken speech related to areas they are very familiar with. For example very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment.	CAN understand short, simple text containing high frequency. For example, everyday signs, instructions on equipment encountered in everyday life.
A1	CAN follow speech which is very slow and carefully articulated with long pauses for him/her to assimilate meaning.	CAN understand very short, simple texts a single phrase at the time, picking up familiar names, words and basic phrases.

The Can-Do statements are for reference only.
